This modest inscription on a bronze tablet is set in a large boulder-monument which has been placed in Bridge Street cemetery, this city, to mark the last resting place of one of Northampton's earliest settlers, the progenitor of nearly all the Strongs now here, along with their co-relatives. John Strong was an elder in the old First church in its early years. Mr. Strong was a tanner by trade and owned a large tract which extended along Main Street from Old South Street to what is now New South Street at the Academy of Music. On that valuable frontage today are business blocks, Crafts Avenue, the city hall, Unitarian church, Memorial hall, Main Street park and the Academy of Music.

When Rev. Sydney Strong of Seattle, a descendant, occupied the First church pulpit here last summer, he found that no monument had been erected in memory of the progenitors of the Strong family. A few of us, he says, put our minds together, and the result is the boulder-monument. Miss Harriett J. Kneeland, Northampton, carried through the plan of setting and cutting the boulder and preparing the tablet, while her brother, Frederick

N. Kneeland, secured the quartz boulder from the hills of Chesterfield, in the Bisbee section of that town, from Mr. H.M. Pittsinger. At the cemetery it was set on a solid concrete foundation below the surface, the boulder standing about four feet above the ground.

"Descendants of Elder John Strong and Abigail Ford (numbering tens and tens of thousands) as they visit Northampton, Mass., may now see this boulder-monument in memory of their sturdy and excellent forebears," says Rev. Sydney Strong in the printed statement to those who contributed toward the project. "The Clapps, Lymans and Cooks will also be interested in the name of Thomas Ford, whose daughters were the women-founders of these illustrious American families. I predict that many reunions will be held about this rock, as the decades and centuries pass and increasingly as automobiles and aeroplanes multiply."

In raising money toward the expense of the boulder-monument, Rev. Mr. Strong says, "I had the pleasure of passing the hat." He lists the contributors and their addresses as follows: From Northampton, Maud Strong, Adeline Strong, Imogene Prindle, F.N. Kneeland, Robert Strong Kneeland, Annie Kneeland Hemenway, Gertrude Brewster; from Easthampton, Mrs. Charles H. Johnson; from Evanston, ILL, Mrs. Albert D. Sanders; from Strongsville picnic collection; from Bowling Green, Ohio, Timothy Strong; from Chippewa Lake, Ohio, Frank Strong; from Toledo, Ohio, Lyman Spitzer, A.L. Spitzer, Carl Spitzer; from Seattle, Wash., Anna Louise Strong, Sidney Strong; from Oshkosk, Wisc., Isabelle Strong Allen; from New York City, George W. Hinman; from Bridgeport, Conn., Frederick A. Strong; from St. Petersburg, Fla., Eva Strong Messinger; from Boston, William E. Strong; from Pasadena, Calif., Arthur Strong; from Port Dodge, Iowa, Albert Strong; from Land of Goshen, KY, Helen Strong Belknap; from Geneva, Switzerland, Tracy Strong; from Oakland, Calif., Ruth Strong Niederhauser, Sidney and John Strong Niederhauser; from Hartford, Conn, Katherine S. Day.

Regarding the genealogy of the Strong family, Rev. Sydney Strong gives the following brief highlights on Elder John Strong, Abigail Ford and Thomas Ford. "According to B.W. Dwight's History of the Strong Family, John Strong was the first Strong in America and was the progenitor of nearly all the Strongs now here, along with co-relatives. According to Governor Caleb Strong, whose statement Dwight quotes in full, Vol. 1. page XXVI, XXVII, John Strong came on the "Mary and John" in 1630 and married Abigail Ford in 1635 or 1636. Some genealogists place his coming as late as 1635. I may say that aided by the splendid New England library, I have gone over the evidence, and believe that Governor Strong's statement that John Strong came on the "Mary and John" will stand.

"Thomas Ford, whose name is on this monument, was a man of force and character. Three other daughters married Roger Clapp, Richard Lyman and Aaron Cook---progenitors of distinguished American families. John Strong and Abigail Ford had a family of 15 or 16 children. Before he died in 1699 there were about him 150 descendants. He was in or near the beginnings of Dorchester, Hingham, Taunton, Mass. and Windsor, Conn. About 1660, he and Abigail settled in Northampton, Mass. He was there the first ruling elder---and for nearly 40 years, until his death in 1699."

In addition, the Colonial Daughters of the 17th Century have also placed a marker at the site.

AIMS AND OBJECTIVES

Promote the recognition of our heritage.
Provide a means of learning more of our forebears.
Promote friendships among the diverse Strong family.
Obtain and/or preserve artifacts of our heritage.
Pass on all of the above to succeeding generations.

THE FORMATION

On the weekend of August 10, 1975, seventy five Strongs, those related to a Strong or some just interested in Strong genealogy met at the historic First Parish Church in Dorchester, MA to form the Strong Family Association of America, Incorporated (SFAA). Strongs and Strong related families came from as far away as California and as near as closeby Boston.

The above meeting came about through the close working relationship between Jarvis A. Strong, Jr., then of Reston, VA and Dwight S. Strong of Boston, MA. In 1974 Jarvis decided to reprint his copy of Benjamin W. Dwight's (1871) The History of the Descendants of Elder John Strong of Northampton, Mass. (The History of the Strong Family) which he had inherited from his grandfather, Benjamin T. Strong. This book in two volumes is a 1,600 page listing of information on the descendants of Elder John Strong, other lines of Strongs that Dwight could not connect to Elder John Strong, listings of graduates of colleges, authors and artists, missionaries to foreign lands, members of state and federal legislatures, judges of courts, soldiers of the Army and Navy and other notables and a short history of Northampton, MA and Elder John Strong. Jarvis sent out about 7,000 promotional letters to Strongs (most addresses obtained from the Library of Congress telephone books), libraries and genealogical organizations. From this he obtained more than 300 advance orders and, most important, a list of Strongs interested in their heritage. One of the recipients was Dwight S. Strong of Boston, MA. With much correspondence and many telephone calls between Jarvis and Dwight, it was decided to have a meeting of Strongs in Dorchester, MA to form a Strong family organization. Letters of notification and two pre-SFAA Newsletters were sent to the list of interested Strongs made up by Jarvis. This resulted in the attendance at the August 10, 1975 formation meeting.

The group, gathered at the First Parish Church in Dorchester, MA, decided to form the Strong Family Association of America and split up into smaller groups to report back on organizational matters. The following was accomplished:

1. By-Laws were formulated to govern the organization. See the By-Laws printed later in this section. Except for some small changes to conform to Internal Revenue Service requirements for a non-profit organization and the addition of District Directors, the current SFAA by-laws are essentially the same as those first voted on and approved.
2. Nine directors were elected with staggered terms to run the organization under the guidance of the SFAA members.
3. SFAA Officers were elected: A President, Vice President, Secretary, Treasurer, Newsletter Editor and Historian to run the SFAA under the guidance of the directors. Additional officers and committees have been authorized by the directors over the years to keep up with an expanding membership and to meet the genealogical needs of the members. Most of the added current officers are Associate Historians needed to divide up the tasks of the Strong Update Program.
4. Adopted the policies to:

Put out an SFAA Newsletter three times a year. In 1984 this policy was changed to issuing the Newsletters four times a year, March, June, October and November. This was to accommodate dissemination of all the material generated at the August National Meetings.

Conduct an SFAA Annual National Members' Meeting each year on the second or third weekend in August with the location selected by the SFAA Directors.

Here are the Annual Meetings that have been held or are scheduled:

Meeting	Weekend Date	Location	Hosts
1.	10 Aug 75	Dorchester, MA	Dwight & Eleanor Strong

5. And we, one and all, simply had a wonderful time meeting other Strongs that were interested in their heritage. This has brought about many lasting friendships of Strong relatives which continue to this day.

INTERMEDIATE YEARS

August 14, 1975 - The Strong Family Association of America was incorporated in the Commonwealth of Massachusetts by the Secretary of the Commonwealth in accordance with Chapter 180 of the Massachusetts general laws as a non-profit organization. This conveniently brings the SFAA under the laws and protection of the Commonwealth of Massachusetts.

October 13, 1976 - The Strong Family Association of America, Inc., was recognized by the Federal Internal Revenue Service as a non-profit organization in accordance with Section 501(c)(3) of the Code. This effectively defines the tax status of the SFAA and provides the tax status of gifts to the SFAA.

August 20, 1977 - The SFAA Crest and Motto:

The Strong Family Association Coat of Arms (The Strong Crest) was approved by the SFAA Directors at the SFAA Annual National Members' Meeting in August 1977 as the official Strong Family Association Coat of Arms (Crest). This came about after much research into the background by several of the more knowledgeable SFAA members. From this information, a young SFAA member artist, James Horner Strong of Arlington, MA painted this crest which was subsequently approved by the SFAA Directors. The animal in the SFAA Crest is a wyvern or eagle. Most American references list it as an eagle. It bears a close resemblance to the animal in the Taunton City, Somerset, England crest which is a wyvern. Make your own choice.

The Latin motto, "Tentanda Via Est" was approved by the SFAA Directors to be the SFAA motto with the translation to be: "The way is to be tried".

In fairness to facts, it is pointed out that none of the research data showed any proof that this crest or any others reviewed were the crest of Elder John Strong.

In 1985 the SFAA was issued a "Trademark" for the crest by the U.S. Department of Commerce, Patent and Trademark Office to prevent the unauthorized use of the Strong Family Association Crest.

August 19, 1979 - THE SFAA UPDATE PROGRAM:

At the Amherst Annual National Members' Meeting it was proposed and passed by the SFAA membership to initiate a project, the update of Benjamin Dwight's (1871) History of the Strong Family in the 1980's. No direction was given as to how this gigantic project could be accomplished.

The SFAA officers and directors talked about how to accomplish this task with little effective consensus. After several ineffective starts, the SFAA Directors at the National Meeting in Washington, D.C. in 1983 agreed to expand the number of Associate Historians for lines of Strongs from Elder John Strong and other Strong lines to spread the workload. Daniel C. Strong had previously been appointed the Associate Historian for the Samuel line from Elder John Strong. Jarvis and Daniel C. Strong had recognized this need before the Washington meeting and took aggressive steps to obtain volunteers for all the remaining lines from Elder John Strong and other Strong lines after the meeting. It took several years to obtain competent volunteers for all lines but this policy remains in effect to this day. See listing of Associate Historians later in this section. Several Associate Historians have been appointed for other lines, examples being the Irish/Scottish lines and the Southern Strong Lines. Other Associate Historians have been appointed to obtain the maximum of other Strong information such as Early Strongs in England and Wales and an "Unknown" lines Associate Historian for those who just don't know their line but would like to find out.

The schedule for obtaining and printing the material has just evolved. Information indicated that there would be about four eight hundred page books of material. Since Lyle A. Strong, Associate Historian for the Jedediah line was the furthest ahead and had more than enough material for one book, he was selected by the SFAA Directors to publish this first volume of the series.

Here is the SFAA Update Program schedule at this time:

THE FIRST BOOK - the Jedediah line from Elder John Strong:

August 15, 1988	All new Jedediah material to Lyle A. Strong.
April 15, 1989	Material assembled - ready to print.
June 15, 1989	Books printed - ready for shipment and sale.

The cost of the above books is $50.00 ($45.00 to SFAA members) postpaid. Mary Topel of Mira Loma, CA is handling the sales of these books for the SFAA.

THE SECOND BOOK - the Thomas line from Elder John Strong. Robert S. Strong of Eaton Rapids, MI is the Associate Historian for this line.

August 15. 1989	All Thomas material to Robert S. Strong.
February 15, 1990	Material assembled - ready to print.
April 15, 1990	Books printed - ready for shipment and sale.

THE THIRD BOOK AND THE FOURTH BOOK - decisions for the material to be included and schedules have not yet been approved but it is anticipated that two 800+ page books will be required to publish the information being generated by the remaining Associate Historians. The Third Book will likely follow the second book schedule only one year later and the fourth book would follow the second book plus two years.

Jarvis Strong sold out his first reprint of Dwight's (1871) History of the Strong Family in 1979 and has reprinted this Book Set in 1984 to support the SFAA Update Program. Sufficient copies of the Strong Book Set are still available directly from Jarvis. Both reprint projects are non-profit. If any profit is made from these reprint projects, it will be given to the SFAA.

The SFAA Corrections Program: In conjunction with the SFAA Update Program, the SFAA appointed Jarvis A. Strong, Jr. as the Project Coordinator, SFAA Corrections Program for the Dwight Book Set. Benjamin Dwight in his 1871 Strong Book put in a NOTICE that anyone finding mistakes in his book should send them to him so that they could be "readily rectified" in a supplement. Now in over 100 years, the supplement is being issued. Also, over the years, a number of writers and speakers have alluded to the mistakes in the Dwight Books. The mistakes/differences have been collected and the number received has been surprisingly small. Lyle A. Strong reported that all the mistakes received by Jarvis on the Jedediah line from Elder John Strong have been included in the text material he has prepared in this book. Also, the material presented by Martha Strong herein supercedes and updates the material presented by Dwight. The other correction material received will be included in each book printed with the appropriate Elder John Strong line material.

TODAY and TOMORROW

The Strong Family Association of America has become a vibrant family genealogical organization.

The SFAA has:

- More than 700 members including family members.
- Members residing in 47 of our American states, with several in Canada and some at APO addresses.
- Membership which continues to climb year by year.
- Joined the computer age with an IBM PC/AT in the custody of the SFAA Historian. The Historian has just started processing the Strong genealogical information onto the computer.
- A Strong genealogical library. The SFAA Historian has established the most complete library of Strong books, books that reference Strong genealogy and much other written material on Strongs.
- The "experts" on Strong history and genealogy with the SFAA Associate Historians specializing.
- An active group of officers, directors and members who spend untold hours of time and effort to help each other and newly found Strongs with all the detailed administration matters and necessary genealogical research.

The above information was prepared by Jarvis A. Strong, Jr. who has been the very active President of the Strong Family Association since the organization was founded in 1975.

IN MEMORIAM

Daniel Charles Strong - November 17, 1940 to February 28, 1989

Had Daniel C. Strong lived a while longer, his name would have shown above as SFAA Historian, Associate Historian for the Samuel Line, Project Coordinator for the Update Program, Member of the Update Program Plan Committee, Chairman of the Nominating Committee and Director-at-large. He took a great interest in his family heritage and the Strong Family Association which showed up in his active work and interests. This helped greatly in the making of the SFAA Genealogical Update Program of which this book is a part. He, a New York City policeman, died of a massive heart attack while fighting a fire as a hometown volunteer fireman. His great and continuous contributions to the aims and objectives of the SFAA are recognized and greatly appreciated by all.

ABOUT THIS BOOK

This book is an update of the descendants of Jedediah Strong, son of Elder John Strong. It is intended to be an extension of the book, The History Of The Strong Family authored and published by Rev. Benjamin Dwight in 1871. Its purpose is to record as many as possible of the descendants of Jedediah Strong from the point in time Dwight left them in 1871 to the present day. This volume, although large in size, records only a small percentage of those persons' descendants last noted in the Dwight volumes. It is indeed a fantasy to imagine the size and magnitude of such an endeavor if all those potential families could be recorded.

This Jedediah Strong update represents the efforts of hundreds of people from all over America in addition to some from Canada, Mexico, Europe and Asia. These people for the large part are members of the Strong Family Association of America, their friends, relatives and other interested people of Strong descent who have contributed to this project. Their work often is an accumulation of family records carefully and lovingly handed down through several generations. Some family records are excellently prepared and reflect the work of many years of careful record keeping. After being recorded, each person's submission was returned to them for their corrections and clarification, aiding greatly in reducing errors. The SFAA makes no claims as to its validity; the documentation rests solely with those who submitted the information. The SFAA Associate Historian has however, tried to accurately compile, record, edit, and reflect what was sent.

Special recognition must be given those dozen or so persons who have contributed extensively and have devoted countless hours and monies gathering information on their and other family members' lines. Their descendants will be most appreciative. The notation at the end of each update reflects those most responsible for the update and to whom information was sent by other family members.

THE FORMAT

This work is unique in that it is a continuation of an existing chronicle and that the ability to flow from the original volumes to this update and back was a primary concern. This has been accomplished by using the name and individual identification number as assigned by Rev. Dwight in 1871. This name and number was then updated to the present time with their known descendants by the submitter.

We have attempted to maintain the original Dwight appearance and mannerisms. However, recognizing the difficulties one encountered in searching through those volumes we have hopefully simplified the exercise by setting up this update on a generation basis. Each person or persons are listed in the generation to which they belong in relation to Elder John as being the first generation.

Each family is formatted similar to Dwight showing the birth, death, marriage, burial, occupation, military duties, place of residence, biography, etc. Each child is given a number. If there is a plus sign (+) ahead of a child's number, it indicates there is more information available on the child in the next generation and only his birth and death dates are shown here. One may locate him in the next generation under his assigned number. If no (+) sign is evident, then all the data that relates to him is shown here and nothing more will be found in the next generation.

Realizing most people may not have a copy or have access to Rev. Dwight's History Of The Strong Family, the reader is provided with a listing of the ancestors of each updated person at the onset of each update.

NUMBERING SYSTEM

Each update (or section) is provided with a five digit number, such as 18763. This is the number assigned by Benjamin Dwight in 1871 to an individual and appears at the top of each page along with the individual's name and page number where they can be found in the 1871 volumes. Occasionally there are additional Dwight numbers in a section other than that listed at the top of the page. This is, of course, additional children that Dwight listed. In order to avoid confusion, all these children will be continued under their parents' assigned Dwight number but are however, listed with their own Dwight assigned numbers in the index.

Each child is given an identification number assigned in numerical ascending order starting with #1. If the child has a family of his own (as indicated by a + sign) then this number will be continued in the next generation and will be preceded by a generation number. This number is the generation of the individual in relation to Elder John Strong, which is the first (or #1) generation in this country. For an example, my number, 11-18763-37 would mean an 11th generation descendant of Elder John Strong. The 18763 would indicate a descendant of Isaac Strong as listed in the Dwight volumes and the 37 means this is simply assigned I.D. number. The 18763 number however, is only shown at the top of the page and the first listing.

NOTES

In each family grouping a statement such as Flint, Genesee, MI is meant to read Flint (city or township), Genesee (county), MI (state). This statement is usually found in the earlier generations as an aid in pinpointing locations when most births, deaths, etc. happened in rural areas. In recent generations the county name is dropped and Flint, MI refers to a city and state as nearly all of the above statistics occur in cities. Once a city and state are noted in a family grouping, each subsequent mention of the city will not repeat the state since it has been previously identified.

APPENDIX

The appendix section contains information received too late to include in its normal place. The index covers this appendix section. Additional information of general interest is also located here.

INDEX

Each person listed in the update is included in the index. Females are listed under their maiden name and if multiple marriages, each of their married names. Each married listing will have a * after the first name to signify that this is a married name and the maiden name will be found elsewhere in the index. Each male spouse is also indexed. Spouse's parents, foster and step-children are not indexed and do not have an identification number but can be found, when known, listed in the family history area of each family. The index carries the Dwight number and a page number where the individual can be found. As there are several persons having the same first and last name, the Dwight number is often helpful in finding the correct person.

REFLECTIONS

The work on this update was begun by the author, Lyle A. Strong, in the fourth quarter of 1985 when he received a rather substantial number of Family Group Sheets from Daniel Strong, the SFAA Historian. These FGS had been filled out by the SFAA membership over the preceding months and sent to Daniel Strong for his sorting, typing and assembling into the various family groups. The first letters to the submitter and others were written by the author at that time. Unfortunately many have declined to answer letters sent to them.

Information was received on some updates from a dozen or more people, each adding to their submission from time to time as information was sent to them by other family members. Updates often have been received on some persons from widely scattered and distant relatives. Naturally the information is not always consistent from submitter to submitter with names, dates, etc. often differing. Such is the lot of the author.

By mid-1987 it became evident that the Jedediah update book was going to exceed its original goal of an 800 page book. A cut-off date of August 15, 1988 was established to limit the material received and commence the finalization process prior to being published.

A computer has been used from the onset to insert and manage the material as it was received. It is difficult to imagine how a task such as this could be accomplished over a period of time without the aid of a computer. All the material for this update has been produced on a computer and printer. The pages were forwarded to the publisher for sizing, printing, binding, etc.

INTRODUCTION

In 1871, Benjamin W. Dwight authored and published THE HISTORY OF THE STRONG FAMILY. The intervening years have uncovered information, both here and in England, regarding Elder John Strong and the Strong family that was not accessible to Mr. Dwight and some of this information is in conflict to that which was recorded by him in 1871.

The purpose of this section is to amend that previous Dwight data and to note and record some of the more pertinent additional facts for those interested in the Strong family and its beginnings. Research is a continuing function of the SFAA and when supplementary information is discovered, it will be published in later volumes of the SFAA update series. This additional information is derived from a wide range of sources* and is enumerated here under the following sub titles:

- O Origin of the name of Strong.
- O The Estrange Family
- O Ancestry of Elder John Strong.
- O Elder John Strong coming to America (1630).
- O Elder John Strong coming to America (1635).
- O Walter Dean family.
- O Thomas Ford family.

ORIGIN OF THE NAME STRONG

1. In the publication, A Concise Anglo-Saxon Dictionary by John Clarke Hall (pub. Cambridge Univ. Press, London 1975), the name STRONG is stated as having originated from STRANG. The name STRANG was previously STRANGE and meant stranger. In Old French this was ESTRANGE.

2. The publication, A Middle English Dictionary (12-15th Century), by Frances H. Stratman, (pub. Oxford Univ. Press, 1978) lists the name as previously STRANG, which, in turn was previously STRAUNGE, STRONGE, AND ESTRANGE - in each case meaning foreigner.

3. The Oxford English Dictionary (History of the English Language by The Philosophical Society, Vol. X1978) lists STRONG as having previously been STRANG, STRANGE, STRENGER, and in Old French, ESTRANGE, meaning "from another country" (Source 1-3, Dr. Charles Goshen).

THE ESTRANGE FAMILY

Although we have no conclusive proof that our family is descendant of the ESTRANGE family, there is enough circumstantial evidence that bears further research and is presented for that purpose.

The first person of that name in England was Rolad Lestrange. He was a tenant of Alan FitzFladd, Hereditary Steward of the Lords of Dol in Brittany. Rolad L'Estrange was married to Maud de Hunstanton, daughter of Ralph de Hunstanton, (son of Herlewin de Hunstanton and Helewise de Plaiz, daughter of Hugh de Plaiz, of Bernham, Suffolk, England).

Rolad Lestrange was called the Duke of Bretaigne in an account of a joust held in the Peke of Derbyshire, at Castle Peverell. He died before 1158.

His children:

1. John Lestrange I
2. Hamon Lestrange
3. Guy Lestrange

The Lestrange family became Barons of Knokyn, Salop, (Shropshire) England. John Lestrange V was summoned to Parliament, September 26, 1299 and became Lord Strange. John Lestrange V was named in writs as "John Lestraunge de Knokyn. In a letter to the Pope he was described as Johannes Lestraunge dominus de Knokyn or Johannes le Straungge. In researching this family, the name is consistently changed to Straunge.

4. In the A GENEALOGICAL and HERALDIC HISTORY of the LANDED GENTRY of GREAT BRITAIN and IRELAND, by Sir Bernard Burke, CB, LL.D., Vol I, 1871, the name STRONGE is stated as being "a corruption from STRAUNGE or STORANGE.

In the Strong family, some name changes are already evident. Elder John's father, John was named Stronge as was his grandfather, George Stronge. In one record, we see George Strounge --- mentioned as a witness to the will of Joanne Domett of Chardstock, dated May 10, 1620 proved October 13, 1620 (Abstracts of Wills in Perogative Court of Cantebury at Somerset House, London, 1904, in Register Soame, 1620, edited by J. Henry Lea, Pub by NEHGR, "Strong Men and Strong Women, by Jean Waters Strong). Through George's son, Thomas Stronge the name was kept Stronge until 1706. The progressions are:

George Stronge -
Rev. James Stronge - b. 1618
Melancthon Stronge - b. 1650
Melancthon Stronge - b.c1686
Melancthon Strong - b. 1706

ELDER JOHN STRONG - ARRIVAL IN AMERICA (1630)
Ship "Mary and John", Capt. Squeb, Master.
Mar 20, 1630 - Plymouth.
Landed - Nantasket, Massachusetts, May 30, 1630.

1629 England - "the organizers of the Massachusetts Bay Company began to gather together the 1500 emigrants who were to sail to New England in the fourteen ships of the great 'Winthrop Fleet'. Rev. John White concentrated his efforts on gathering and organizing a group of people from Southwestern England, from the shires of Dorset, Somerset, and Devon. These people were to become the passengers of the first ship to sail in 1630, the 'Mary and John'." (Search for the Passengers of the Mary & John 1630, Vol I, by Burton Spear).

ELDER JOHN STRONG - ARRIVAL IN AMERICA (1635)

Ship "Hopewell", John Driver, Master for Massachusetts Bay of New England.
May 8, 1635 - Weymouth.
"Jon Stronge for himself, family, goods and food."
(Book #58B, entitled "Index of Ships and Passengers to the American Colonies", Exchequer K.R. 1618-1668 copied from Port Book E 190/876/1, Strong Family Newsletter, Jeanne Waters Strong).

Strong family tradition, based on the account written by Governor Caleb Strong in 1777, maintains that Elder John Strong was a passenger on the ship "Mary and John" in 1630. James Savage, in "Genealogical Dictionary of the First Settlers of New England", 1860," discounts Elder John Strong having come on the 'Mary and John'. "Although Savage was correct in concluding John Strong did not come on the "Mary and John" in 1630, with his first wife and children, it has not been proven he did not come in 1630, as a youth. A number of young men of the "Mary and John" returned to England, including, Humphrey Pinney, Jonathan Gillett and Stephen Terry, the latter two to marry." (Search for the Passengers of the Mary & John, Vol 2, by Burton Spears).

Rev. Sydney Strong in the Hampshire Daily Gazette, April 5, 1934, Northampton, MA has this to say, "Considering the community, the character of the people involved, their close and intimate relations, it is not possible for me to conceive how an idea like John Strong coming in 1630, with Warham, etc. could get into the mind of Gov. Strong, unless it was a fact. There were people in Northampton for 100 years who would be able to correct a story that John Strong came in 1630, with the Mary & John company, if it weren't true." (Search for the Passengers of the Mary & John, Vol 2, by Burton Spear).

Elder John lived in Hingham, 1635, Taunton 1638, Windsor, CT 1646 and Northampton, 1659. John Strong, Walter and John Deane were admitted freemen of the Plymouth Colony, December 4, 1638.

Margerie Deane Strong and infant died about 1635, at Hingham or Taunton, MA.

JEDEDIAH STRONG, s/o Elder John Strong and Abigail Ford, b. May 7, 1637 in Hingham, MA, d. May 22, 1733 in Coventry, CT. He m1 Nov 18, 1662 in Northampton, MA, FREEDOM WOODWARD, bpt. 1642 in Dorchester, MA, d. May 17, 1681 in Northampton one week after the birth of their 14th child.

Freedom was the d/o of Henry and Elizabeth Woodward. Henry was b. Mar 22, 1607 in Eng., d. Apr 7, 1685 in Northampton, Elizabeth, d. Aug 13, 1690 in Northampton. Henry was the s/o Thomas Woodward and grandson of Hugh Woodward (b. 1531). Thomas Woodward m. Elizabeth Tynen in Childwell Parish, Lancaster, England, May 23, 1592. Henry was a physician and was licensed to sell wines and liquors and had a grist mill in Northampton. He came to America from Much Worten, Lancaster, England on the ship "James" with Rev. Richard Mather's company, landing at Dorchester, MA, Aug 16, 1635. The above is from The Genealogy of Herbert Cornelius Graves, 1963.

Jedediah was a farmer at Northampton and during the years 1677-9 was paid 18 shillings a year for blowing his trumpet on Sunday to summon the people to meetings, since the town had no bell. On May 31, 1674, Martin Smith of Pocumtuck, was fined 20s for trying to kiss Freedom (Woodward) Strong on the street. She was 32 at the time and the mother of 8 children.

Jedediah m2 Dec 19, 1681, MRS. ABIGAIL (BARTLETT) STEBBINS, widow and 2nd wife of John Stebbins of Northampton. She was a d/o Robert and Ann Bartlett of Northampton, b. ____, d. Jul 15, 1689 in Northampton. She was the mother of 11 children by John Stebbins and probably brought some of these children with her when she married Jedediah. Eventually 4 of her children married into the Strong family but not to Jedediah's children.

Jedediah m3 Jan 5, 1692, MRS. MARY (HART) LEE, widow of John Lee of Farmington, CT and d/o Dea. Stephen Hart of Farmington, b. 1640, d. Oct 10, 1710 from an injury she received the previous day, by the fall of the horse she was riding (on a pillion behind her husband), when they had just started on a journey to Coventry to visit their children. The record read thus at Northampton, "Oct 9, 1610, Jedediah and his wife set out early in the morning to visit their children at Coventry, when they came against the falls at South Hadley, among the smooth stones, the horse's feet slipped and fell flat on the off side and by the fall killed the woman, though she was not quite dead then, but had life in her until the next morning, yet never spoke a word."

Mary was the mother of 6 children by John Lee of Farmington, MA and brought her two youngest children with her when she married Jedediah. These two children, David and Tabitha, married two of Jedediah's children, Lydia and Preserved. As some of his children had earlier moved to the Coventry or Lebanon, CT area, he too moved there in 1710. He first went to Lebanon where land records are recorded in his name dating from 1699 and where his will is recorded. Sometime after 1726 he went to Coventry where he died in 1733. He was not only the father of 14 children but also a step-father to seventeen additional children.

In Coventry, the Coventry Historical Society credits him and Preserved with building a house at 2382 South St. The house is built like a duplex, each half is separated and almost identical to each other. The house ultimately passed on to the Porter family and was restored by George Dudley during the 1930's. The present owner calls the house "The Northampton House" to memorialize a small group of settlers (including the Strongs) who came to Coventry from Northampton. A short distance to the south and across the road is the boyhood home of Nathan Hale, (s/o Elizabeth Strong) the spy martyr of the Revolution, and a great great grandson of Jedediah Strong. Both homes are open at selected times for public visitations.

Where Jedediah is buried in Coventry is not known. A guess would be the Hale Cemetery, located nearby where many early Strongs and Hales are buried. A search of the Coventry cemeteries, by myself in 1981, did not reveal his grave or a listing of him. Time would have obliterated any tombstone or marker he may have once had.

Jedediah Strong's lands in Northampton, MA

Jedediah Strong came to Northampton, Mass. with his father in 1659 and in 1661 was granted home lot #8 (as shown on James Trumbull's early map of Northampton). He disposed of this lot in 1667 to Samuel Smith, at which time he acquired lot #10 from Increase Turner. He disposed of this lot in 1707 to his son Preserved. Thomas Ford, Jedediah's grandfather, gave him a parcel of land lying within the common fence containing 70 acres. He transferred this to Jonathan Hunt, who transferred to him a parcel up the Mill River bounded by Mill River on the east and the commons on the west and bordering on land of Medad Pomeroy south and land of Henry Woodward north containing 19 acres. On 16 March 1702 Jedediah transferred these two parcels to his son, Preserved Strong.

His father-in-law, Henry Woodward, gave him a parcel of land next to the commons on the west, Mill River east and the sides bordering on land of Jedediah south and John Taylor north containing about 5 acres. Jedediah bought from Increase Turner a parcel of land being a home lot with a dwelling house. He gave this to Preserved on 17 April 1707.

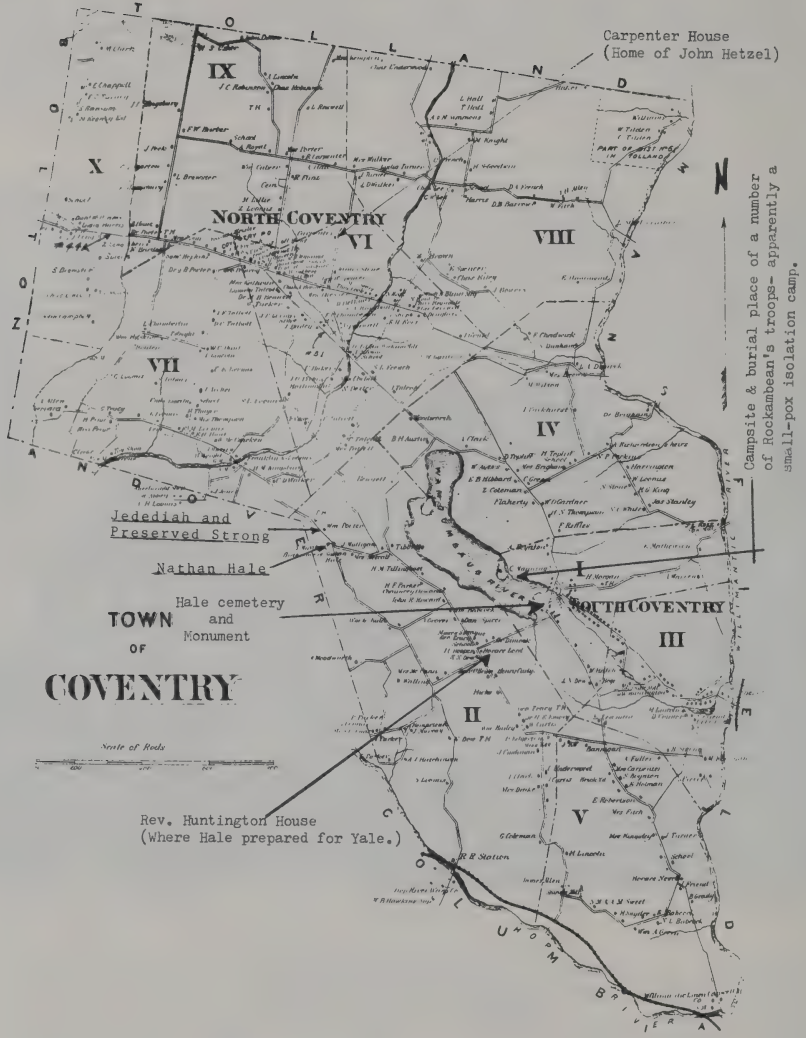

Elder John Strong transferred a parcel to Jedediah deeded 26 March 1678 located in Great Rainbow and bounded east and west by the highway, bordering on land of Nehemiah Allyn north and the land of Thomas Strong south containing 3+ acres. Another parcel from Elder John was bounded on the east and west on the highways bordering on the land of Thomas Strong north and William Hulberd, Sr., south containing 3+ acres. This land was transferred to Preserved on 16 April 1707. Another parcel from Elder John was in the same field on Middle Meadow Hill bounded on the highway east and west, on the highway south and on land of Thomas Strong containing 5+ acres. This parcel was also transferred to Preserved on 16 April 1707.

Jedediah bought from Walter Filer, attorney in behalf of George Filer, land in Northampton Town, bounded on the highway south and north, bordering land of Joshua Punery east, and on the west land of Jonathan Hunt containing 6+ acres. This deed was dated 20 February 1677 and transferred to Preserved in 1707.

Another parcel of land was granted first to Jedediah Strong, Jr., and later granted to Jedediah Strong, Sr. This lot was abutting the commons north and south and to the rear of another division of home lots east and to Mark Warner's land above containing 4+ acres. Jedediah, Sr. was granted a parcel of land adjoining the above home lot and bounded on the north by said lot, on the south by the land of Samuel Smith, the commons on the west, and east against the rear of the other division of home lots containing 4+ acres. On 16 April 1707 this land was transferred to Preserved.

Jedediah Strong's land in Lebanon, CT

Jedediah had received a good quantity of land from his father and bought from others in Northampton, but he was attracted to the land offered in Lebanon. The town in the late 1600's consisted of several distinct parcels of land purchased by different persons at different times, but united into a single town. Settlement began in 1695. The early settlers came from Norwich, New London, New Haven, Windsor, Connecticut and Northampton, Hatfield and Martha's Vineyard in Massachusetts. The locality was named Lebanon in 1697 because a swamp of cedars reminded Reverend James Fitch of the Biblical cedars of Lebanon

The first evidence of Jedediah's land in Lebanon states that Jedediah Strong of Northampton bought from Josiah Dewey and William Clark of Lebanon a parcel in Lebanon Village. The boundaries were as follows: on the street west and on Dewey and Clark's land on the east, lying against the lot of John Clark of Northampton on the south and on John Woodard's land on the north being 35 acres, four of which are for a home lot. This was recorded on 13 December 1701. Another deed that was recorded 6 March 1701/2 states that Jedediah Strong of Northampton granted to his son, John Strong, 35 acres that he had obtained from Dewey and Clark. Preserved Strong was a witness to the signing of the deed which took place in Northampton. John Strong died in April 1699, and the land reverted to Jedediah. A summary of Jedediah's land in Lebanon appears in the Lebanon Proprietors' Records.

Children, by Abigail Stebbins:

15. Mary Strong, b. 1683, m. Ebenezer Pixley.

* Sarah is not listed as a daughter in the Benjamin Dwight volumes. She is proved a daughter of Jedediah by a receipt (dated Coventry, 25 Sept. 1733) from William Cushman (son of Sarah and Thomas Cushman) to "Preserved Strong, executor of ye last will and testament of his father, Jedediah Strong, late of Coventry, deceased, for 9s, 9d in full of what was will'd to me by my honored grandfather, Jedediah Strong". (Windham, Connecticut Probate Records, Vol. 2, page 260.)

When Jedediah Strong was 89 years of age he wrote his will while still living in Lebanon bequeathing various sums of money to his surviving children and grand children. It was not long afterward he went with his son, Preserved, to live in Coventry. The origin of the name Jedediah is semetic and means friend or beloved of the Lord. It appears in the Old Testament when the name was given by the prophet Nathan to Solomon. The name was introduced by the Puritans in the 17th century.

Sep 22, 1777 in New Jersey, d. May 28, 1842. They are buried in the Woodmansee Family Cemetery at their home in Sugar Valley.

Rachel and Daniel moved from Pennsylvania in 1809 in a flat-boat, which was built on the Monongahela River and, which when completed, was loaded with hollow-ware (cast-iron kettles, cooking utensils, etc.), together with household goods. They floated down the Ohio River to Cincinnati, Ohio which was then a small village and military post, where he disposed of the hollow-ware. The 160 acres of land they bought was in Liberty Twp., Butler Co., Ohio and was covered with heavy timber. He built a log house and cleared the land for a farm. A few years later he built, what was then considered, a large house of hewn logs, having seven rooms, four downstairs and three upstairs, which was afterwards covered with sawed weather-board.

The kitchen was the largest of the rooms being about 29 X 25 feet in size. That kitchen was for many years the preaching place for the itinerant Methodist preachers. Once in two weeks the preacher came and all the people of the neighborhood would be there to hear him. Long oaken benches were placed in the kitchen to seat all who came. After the service, dinner was prepared and all from a considerable distance remained for dinner. This continued until about 1840 when a church was built. On their farm was a very fine grove of sugar maples through which ran a small stream; from these trees was made all the maple sugar and syrup needed by the family and from this grove the farm got its name, Sugar Valley.

Ephraim's mother died when he was two years old when his youngest brother Frazee was born. His father Isaac married a second time after which Frazee (by his account), found life so hard and burdensome and was so unhappy, that he felt it necessary to run away from his home. It, therefore, seems likely that such experiences prompted Ephraim to leave his home early as a boy, never returning, and losing all trace of his family. Frazee had but one given name and an initial, and as some of the Frazee family had changed their name to Frazier, and also because some of the children at school insisted on nicknaming him "Crazee Cushman", he added to his name "Frazier", and from that time on he became Frazier Frazee Cushman and signed his name F.F. Cushman. He stated that his stepmother made life so onerous and unhappy for him that rather than bare the unpleasant and unfair treatment she insisted was his lot, he decided to try life on his own. He came down the Ohio River by flat-boat with a family by the name of "Vance", in the year of 1817, to Fulton, Hamilton, OH, now Cincinnati, OH, where he learned a trade of a potter. After his marriage they lived at first on her father's property, then moved in succession to New Richmond, OH; Jacksonburg, Butler, OH; Oxford, OH; Franklin Co., IN; Goodwin's Corner, IN; Rush Co., IN; Connersville, Fayette Co., IN; Hamilton, OH; Fairfield, Franklin, IN.

Asa bought a farm, two miles east of his father's home, where they lived until his accidental death. Near the barn was a well, surrounded by a low rail fence, where water was drawn by a bucket. From the fence extended a trough at which stock was watered, and while he was watering a number of young horses that were running loose in the barnyard, it is supposed that one of them, in play, kicked a top rail from the fence, which as he stooped to draw water struck him back of the ear, dislocating his neck. He was a successful farmer and had sold his farm intending to go to Illinois and buy land on the prairies.

In his early years James showed a fondness for verse and developed into a literary character of ability and in the selection of the topics for his muse was of unusual eccentricity. He called himself the bard of Sugar Valley, and was sometimes denominated the Milton of America. He was the author of several extensive poems, two of which were "The Closing Scene: a Poem in 12 books" and "Wrinkles from the Brow of Experience". These two poems received much praise, both in America and Europe. Thomas Noon Talford, the great critic and judge of Westminister, said "The Closing Scene" rivals the "Divina Commedia" of Dante, and Samuel Rodgers called it the "Paradise Lost" of America. He traveled considerably in Europe and all over America.

An interesting story is related by Mr. A.J. Augspurger, of Trenton, OH. "Years ago it was the habit of the country schools to devote the last Friday afternoon of each school month to entertainment; and as James Woodmansee was recognized as poet, author and humorist, he was invited to these Friday afternoon recreations as a entertainer. (Upon one of these occasions, he told them that within the 20th century, great machines would be perfected that would fly through the air and carry passengers, and others that would carry freight.) He also envisioned and spoke of an instrument that would take music and conversation out of the air. The result of these statements brought on the objections of the prominent elders of the community and they said such nonsense should not be spoken before or in the presence or hearing of children.

Dwight Spaulding Strong graduated from Springfield College in 1930 and Eleanor graduated from Boston University in 1961. Dwight was Associate Director of Junior Achievement while in college. He served as Associate Director of Hyde Park Branch, Boston, Y.M.C.A. from 1930-1937; from 1937-1939 he was New England Director of Royal Ambassadors; from 1939-1945 he was Executive Director Dorchester House (a settlement house) in Boston; from 1945-1947 he was Executive Director of Boston Young Men's Christian Union; from 1947-1967 he was Executive Director of the New England Citizen Crime Commission and served as President of the National Citizens Crime Association in 1957 and again in 1967.

A most unusual experience occurred in 1961 when he documented with the assistance of Jay McMullen of CBS - TV an estimated $5 million a year in illegal gambling in Swartz's Locksmith Shop on Massachusetts Avenue, Boston near Symphony Hall which resulted in the "Biography of a Bookie Joint" shown twice on prime time TV nationally. As a result Governor John Volpe held hearings to remove Boston Police Commissioner Leo Sullivan. Also, state laws were changed and a Grand Jury returned indictments against twelve persons and all were guilty. The state legislature created the Ward Commission to investigate corruption and other problems related to law enforcement.

At Amherst High School his class had 45 girls and 9 boys and with many talented girls it was expected that one of them would become class president. Instead Dwight was elected president and re-elected to serve over sixty years, which he has considered a very special honor.

Harvey went into business with his father at an early age. In 1812 he moved to New York City, remaining in the mercantile business and, after the war, travelling between U.S. and Great Britain. In 1820 he was appointed Consul to Scotland by President James Monroe, residing in the Glasgow area. There he met Janet Gillespie and was married in that city.

In 1824 he returned to private pursuits in the mercantile business, remaining in Scotland until 1834 when he returned to America with his family, spending the winter in Geneva, New York. The spring found them on the road again heading west. When they reached La Porte County in Indiana, they were so impressed with the area they decided to stay. Here they stayed the next 29 years where he farmed their quarter section of land, and he practiced as an attorney. After their children were grown they moved west again (1864). This time stopping in Keosauqua, Iowa. Their son, Harvey had moved near there earlier, followed by another son Colin later. Here they remained the rest of their lives. afflicted by the gold fever, he crossed the plains and mountains to California where he was successively in four years: a doctor, farmhand, gold miner, cattleman, innkeeper and land speculator. In 1856 he returned to NY via Panama and promptly went west again, this time to Iowa to practice medicine. He served throughout the Civil War as a surgeon, being discharged about Nov 1865 in Davenport, Iowa. They lived a few years in Warsaw, IL and then in 1875 moved to San Francisco, CA. Henry spent his first college years at the University of Michigan, transferring to and graduating from the University of Rochester in 1854 with a medical degree. After a year of medical practice, Henry felt the field was too inexact and turned to the study of law, graduating from Albany Law School in 1856.

Moving his wife and small daughter, Ella, immediately to Louisville, KY and from there to Keokuk, IA, Henry set up his law practice, specializing in railroad law. He became General Counsel for the Chicago Burlington & Quincy line and, in 1873, the President of the Atchison, Topeka & Santa Fe for a short time. Before becoming president Henry had assisted in constructing the Sante Fe. It was in organizing defenses against the Indians to protect the railroad's building operations that he received the title of General, which remained with him through his life.

In 1872 Henry moved his wife and family to Boston. His very successful law practice made it possible for Henry to begin investing in real estate and he saw Chicago's potential, moving there in 1875. Henry, with several other men, originated the Lake Geneva resort area in Wisconsin and was one of the early Easterners to discover the beauty of Santa Barbara, CA where he built a large house, transporting by sea an enormous pipe organ which he played proficiently. By the 1880's he had given up his law practice, devoting his time to managing his many properties and traveling the world.

On Oct 21, 1911, at age the of 82, Henry Strong died in Denver, Colorado leaving a legacy of great intellectual force. The Henry Strong Educational Fund has assisted over 17,500 college students with scholarships in many fields of endeavor.

Oct 20, 1900 in Tama Co., IA (Frances was a sister of Joseph Keller who m. Nancy Munsell, Dwight #16233, a cousin of Samson Strong). He was a freewill Baptist and a farmer in Tama Co., IA. In 1855 the family, with seven children, moved west in a covered wagon, with the opening of western lands. Land could be bought for about 22 cents to $1.25 an acre at this time. Seeing the fertile prairie of Iowa they stopped near and just north of Montour in Tama Co. They first built a log cabin and in 1857 finished a house built of limestone cut from a nearby quarry. The home, one of the oldest pioneer homes in Iowa, still stands, though in disrepair, and is a favorite subject for artists and photographers. In 1862 the governors of Iowa and Minnesota asked for volunteers to help fight the Sioux Indians. The Indians were attacking the forts and settlers in Iowa and Minnesota after the U.S. Cavalry had left to fight in the Civil War. Samson, at age 46 enlisted on Oct 27, 1862, in Company "F", Sixth Regiment of Iowa Volunteer Cavalry and was mustered into service Nov 7, 1862. He was sent to Camp Hendershott near Davenport. He passed away on March 18, 1863 in Camp Pollock, Scott Co., IA, from pneumonia, during a severe and prolonged snow storm. His body was brought home in an army wagon at which time his family learned of his death. His widow received $8 a month and $2 a month for each of her 4 dependent children. They are buried in Dobson Cemetery in Tama Co., IA.

HER DESCENDANTS

EIGHTH GENERATION

8-16092. OLIVE STRONG, d/o Rev. Ezra Strong #16046, b. Feb 18, 1818 in Wales, Genesse, NY, d. Jan 12, 1881 in St. Johns, Apache, AZ. She m. Mar 18, 1841 in Berreman, Jo Daviess, IL, NATHAN CRAM TENNEY, s/o Meshach and Phoebe (Cram) Tenney, b. Jul 28, 1817 in Ontario, Wayne, NY, d. Jun 24, 1882 in St. Johns, Apache, AZ. (The above b. and d. records are from their tombstones.) Olive's father, Ezra Strong was a Methodist minister until May 13, 1833 when he embraced the Mormon religion while residing in upstate New York (prob. near Palmyra). About 1840 he brought his family to Illinois (near Nauvoo) to be close to the Church as the Prophet had asked. In time Olive married Nathan C. Tenney, a non-believer. Two years later he was converted to Mormonism and in 1843 they moved to Nauvoo. On a bitter cold winter night in 1848 at three in the morning the mob violence finally erupted. They were forced to flee from their home and were driven across the Mississippi river on the ice. In the spring of 1848, Nathan and Olive went with the body of the Church and left their Winter Quarters and Council Bluffs in large wagon trains. They secured a homesite in Cottonwood, UT, not far from Salt Lake City. In 1852 Nathan was called to be the Bishop at San Bernadino Co. where they were very successful. Nathan was called upon, by the Brethern of the Church, to several missions throughout the southwest and in Minnesota during his life. He always responded and was successful. They were called back to Utah in 1858 and gave birth to a son on Mar 5, 1958 in Cedar City, Iron, UT. They lived in several small towns in Southern Utah called "Dixie" - Ft. Harmony, Grafton, Toquerville. At Toquerville they were called to go and settle Arizona. In 1861/2 they made their home in Toquerville, UT and later St. John, AZ. He was shot accidently in St. Johns, by a stray bullet, while trying to negotiate a settlement between two rival mobs and bring peace to St. Johns. The story of their lives, in more detail, by Marsha and Cliff Stratton is on file with the Strong Family Association of America Historian. Nathan married three additional times. Joseph Keller is a brother to Francis who married Samson Strong, Dwight #16087, a cousin of Nancy's.

They farmed first on acreage owned by Nancy's mother, and as other heirs came of age, purchased their shares and also bought 150 acres west of West Mansfield, Ohio. Joseph and three brothers opened a store in the new town of West Mansfield, which they carried on successfully before selling it. He then devoted his attention to farming and purchasing and selling livestock. In 1866 he purchased a general store and kept store again for about 18 months. On Feb 5, 1868 he sustained a very heavy loss as the storeroom and all the merchandise burned. The farm west of town was sold to straighten up his accounts and in 1871 they moved to his unimproved acres about four miles north. In 1868 he was elected a Logan County Commissioner and during his term the present court house was built. He served in the Civil War as a Sgt. in the 13th Inf. Bat. Ohio Volunteer Light Artillery. Frederick was a school teacher in West Mansfield, OH before going to Kansas before 1885. A story related by Chelmer Keller: "Uncle Knowlton was hunting with dogs one night, with friends. The dogs were on the trail of an animal, the hunters were running after the dogs. Uncle Knowlton had an axe over his shoulder, tripped over a root, fell forward, the axe cut the back of his hand, cutting the leaders to his last three fingers. When the hand healed, the little finger was curled tight to the palm, the next curled about half way and the middle finger was slightly curved. As he grew older he followed the carpenter trade. The crippled fingers caused him problems in holding the saw and hammer. While the parents were away one night, Uncle Knowlton mentioned to his brothers and sisters that someday he would have to have his little finger cut off. Uncle Hartley spoke up and said, I'll cut your finger off for you. Uncle Knowlton said, "All right, lets get started." Uncle Hartley went out to the tool shed and got a hammer and chisel, came in the kitchen and got a straight blade razor. Uncle Knowland laid his hand on the kitchen table. Uncle Hartley cut around where the finger was attached to the hand. The girls had lard and turpentine ready. Uncle Hartley, using chisel and hammer, proceeded to unjoint the finger from the hand, applied lard and turpentine and bandaged it up. The next morning the mother asked Knowlton, "What happened to your hand?" Knowlton walked over to a shelf, picked up the finger wrapped in cloth, and handed it to her. I presume there was quite a to-do as they then proceeded to take Knowlton to a doctor right away. The hand healed and one could not tell there had been a finger there."

Clarence went to Kansas in ca. 1885, brothers Knowlton and Hartley were already there. Chelmer Keller tells this story. "My father, Clarence and mother, lived in the little town of Bancroft, Kansas shortly after they were married. Father was in the bank at Bancroft. He made a practice of oiling around the door opening and hinges of the safe once a week. One night there was a big explosion which awakened the town. When father got down to the bank he found that an attempt had been made to blow open the safe. The steel on the outer covering of the safe was coiled up in curls and the lock was damaged so the safe could not be opened. A safe expert from Kansas was called. He didn't arrive until the next day. Father called the bank at Seneca, Kansas, the county seat, and explained he had no funds to open for business that day. The bank at Seneca hired a livery rig and sent the money on it. When the safe expert arrived the next day he showed father the soap cups that held nitroglycerine which were stuck around the opening between the door and safe. If all the nitro used had detonated, the town of Bancroft would have been blown off the map. The expert stated that the oil around the door opening kept the nitro from getting inside and blowing off the door. Father carried the bank funds home every evening in a pillow slip and back to the bank in the morning for several weeks until a new safe was installed. Mother used to tell us she never did get a good nights sleep all the nights that the bank money was in the house."

HER DESCENDANTS

SIXTH GENERATION

6-16507. SALLIE (or Sally) STRONG, d/o Jabez Strong #15903, b. Apr 3, 1771, d. Mar 15, 1830 in Mohican, Wayne, OH. She m. Oct 21, 1790 in Spencertown, Columbia, NY, JEDEDIAH SMITH SR., s/o Seth and Thankful (Burt) Smith, b. Apr 21, 1767 in Granby, Hampshire, MA, d. Dec 6 1849 in Ashtabula, Ashtabula, OH.

He was a man of pioneering spirit, although he began life in New England, he led the family migration as far west as Ohio. After their marriage they moved from Spencertown, NY to Jericho, NY. Here five of their ten children were born. Among them were Ralph, the oldest of the boys and Jedediah Strong Smith, the famous trapper and explorer. Jedediah, Sr. is listed as a founder of both the Congregation and the Presbyterian Churches in Bainbridge, NY (formally Jericho, NY). By 1780 they had moved to Northeast Township, Erie Co. in the northwest corner of Pennsylvania along Lake Erie. From here Ralph and Jedediah, Jr. joined Admiral Perry's fleet of war ships on Lake Erie in the War of 1812. Ralph enlisted as a regular militiaman and Jedediah, who was fourteen and tall for his age, was enrolled as clerk of super cargo on one of the ships.

After the war they moved to Perrysville, Richland Co., Ohio until about 1822 when they moved 15 miles further west to Mohican, Wayne Co., Ohio. The family was still living at Perrysville when the young son, Jedediah Strong Smith, left the home in 1821 to begin his now well known adventures as trapper and explorer in the Far West. They moved to Ashtabula, Ohio in 1827. The above was from the "Pacific Historian", 1978.

There is little doubt that Jedediah Strong Smith stood at the forefront of his profession of trapper, explorer, scout and mountain man during the early exploration of the Far West. He was a giant of a man among his peers and his reputation has stood him well over the years. Any book on the Far West, the Rocky Mountains, California or Oregon will have several pages devoted to his contributions.

The following is an excerpt from The National Geographic Society's book INTO THE WILDERNESS. "Smith was forever marked by a grizzly that sprang upon him in a thicket west of the Black Hills. It grasped him by the head and broke several of his ribs before it was killed. Smith was all but scalped by its teeth. He was laid bare from left eye to right ear. One eyebrow was gone and one ear nearly severed. Smith, calmly directed his own repair, had one of his men use a needle to stitch the ear on. Within days he was back on his horse and heading west. Smith was the first to walk overland to California. He was in a group that found South Pass in 1824 and made it known as the key to Oregon. He was the first to mark a direct route across the Great Basin, to traverse the Sierra Nevada, and to walk the length of California into Oregon."

The following is an excerpt from THE AMERICAN, RIVER OF THE El DORADO, by Margaret Sandborn (1974). "The vast deserts and rugged mountains so long believed impassable were to be conquered by a young man named Jedediah Strong Smith, who would be the first white man to reach the Pacific Coast overland from the United States. Following the trails that he opened, thousands of his countrymen-trappers, explorers, settlers and gold seekers-were to follow and change the whole course of history. In the spring of 1822, Smith packed his Bible, a book of Wesleyan hymns, a copy of Rollins' HISTORIE ANCIENT, and the work on Lewis and Clark, and, taking his musket and a few provisions set off for St. Louis. Jedediah Smith has been described as a mild man and a Christian. But underneath the quiet unassuming exterior of this lean, muscular man, who stood six feet two inches tall in his moccasins, were all the pre-requisites of the frontiersman and explorer. There was never any doubt who was in command. " Old Jed" some of his men might call him behind his back, but to his face he was "Mr. Smith" or "Captain". In his brief life he saw more of the West than Lewis and Clark, and he knew as much or more about it than did Kit Carson after a much longer career. If Smith had not been murdered by the Comanches when he was thirty-three, knowledge of the Far West would have been advanced at least fifteen years."

The following is from the World Book Encyclopedia. "He was a famous Bible carrying frontier scout, obtaining fame on the Oregon Trail. He was an American trader and explorer. As a young man, he entered the fur trade in the West. He set out in 1826 to find trade routes to California and the Northwest. From the Great Salt Lake, he crossed Ute and Paiute Indian territories, the Mojave Desert, and the High Sierras, until he reached Mission San Gabriel in California. But the Spaniards ordered him out. He started north to find a pass across the Sierra Nevada. While returning to California the next year, Indians killed 10 of his party, Smith escaped. In 1828, he led an expedition to Fort Vancouver (now Vancouver, Wash.), but an Indian attack along the way wiped out most of his party. He was killed by a Comanche Indian arrow on the Sante Fe Trail." In southwest Kansas a sign eleven miles south of Ulysses, Kansas on U.S. 270 marks Wagon Bed or Lower Springs, nearby is a memorial to Jedediah Strong Smith. There is also a memorial to him in the Pioneer Park, Salt Lake City, UT.

SIXTH GENERATION

Ezra Strong completed his physician's requirements in 1797 and first practiced medicine, and other pursuits of a mercantile nature, in Nyskayuna, NY, a Shaker community. In 1799 he and wife Betsey moved west to Scipio, Cayuga Co., NY, where at Strong's Corners, amidst other Strong and Dunning siblings, he was a doctor, merchant and farmer. He made a lot of money selling cattle to the army for the war of 1812, and then lost everything, like many others, in the peace of 1816. Recovering from bankruptcy in 1821, he and family moved to Rochester, NY where he was a physician to the convicts working on the Erie Canal. His death came from an illness contracted on a business trip to Toledo.

He started a buggy whip manufacturing business at the end of the Civil War, taking in as a partner his nephew, Henry Alvah Strong, #8-16958 below, in 1865. Apr 9, 1877 Rochester, NY. Catherine was a sister to Jane Hopkins, wife of #7-16927 above.

Starting his "Horatio Alger" newspaper career at the age of 16, with benefit of but little formal education, Alvah Strong eight years later had accumulated enough capital and experience to found in 1834 what became western New York's premier newspaper, the ROCHESTER DEMOCRAT, a supporter of the Whig party. The DEMOCRAT still survives to this day as the ROCHESTER DEMOCRAT and CHRONICLE, which also happened to be the foundation stone upon which Frank E. Gannett, and his successors built today's Gannett newspaper chain, the largest publishing empire in the U.S. This happened long after Alvah prematurely sold his Democrat interest for too small a sum in 1864 to William S. King, a man infamous for his role in the 19th century Credit Mobilier scandal. Alvah's publishing plant suffered the ill effects of several major fires during his aegis, from which by repeated borrowings the newspaper recovered and went on to help elect Whig Presidents, - William Henry Harrison in 1849; James K. Polk, 1844; and Zachary Taylor in 1848. Political campaigns became the major and consuming interest of Alvah Strong, who shifted his efforts to the Republican Party when it was founded in 1856 and the Whig apparatus died off. He only once ran for public office and was elected to Supervisor of Rochester's fourth ward in 1854.

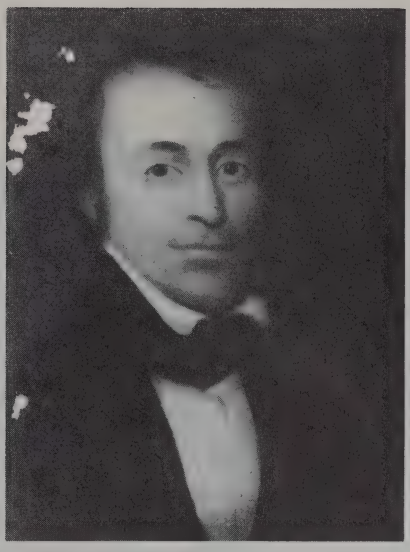

In 1848 Alvah joined a group that financed a telegraph line in Penn. between Lancaster and Harrisburg. This profitable undertaking he also sold prematurely in 1857, for if he had waited he could well have made a fortune in the Western Union Company which, under the astute leadership of fellow Rochesterian, Hiram Sibley, became a profitable telegraph monopoly. In his later years, Alvah Strong took an interest in the Lamb Knitting Machine, which failed to prosper, and also actively traded in the stock market, although the panics of 1857 and later years caused by excessive speculation discouraged him.

He was for more than twenty years a Deacon of the First Baptist Church of Rochester and he served that church for almost the same length of time as its Sunday School Superintendent. His deep religious convictions inspired him to help found both the University of Rochester and the Rochester Theological Seminary, of which his son, Augustus Hopkins Strong, #8-16956, served as President from 1872 to 1912. He was a Trustee of both these Baptist institutions and also the first Treasurer of the Seminary. Perhaps one of the most respected and loved citizens of Rochester in the 19th century, there is little to mark his impact upon the city except the Alvah Strong building in the Seminary, donated by his son, Henry Alvah Strong #8-16958 below, and others in his memory. Some thoughtful tributes to the man do exist:

"Many, since he died, have said to me that, take him all in all, Alvah Strong was the best man they ever knew ..."

"He was not a profound thinker, nor a skilled writer, nor a practiced speaker, nor a master of social usages, but he was a plain and honest man, careful of the feelings of others, with great persistency of purpose, some inventive and organizing ability and determination to use what gifts he had for the Glory of God..."

"He was a most peaceful, patient, generous, hospitable soul. He had a steady will, but he did nothing by jerks...He was

MARGUERITE G. JONES.

Dr. A.H. Strong (AHS), graduated from Yale in 1857, and in 1856, having been converted to a religious life by Dr. Charles B. Finney, the same preacher who had so influenced Alvah Strong, he completed his Dr. of Divinity degree at the Rochester Theological Seminary in 1859. His first ministry was at Haverhill, Mass., where his two eldest children were born, after which he accepted a call to Cleveland, Ohio. In Cleveland, where he served until 1872, he and his family became close friends of their counterparts in the John D. Rockefeller household, an active parishioner in AHS church. His association with Rockefeller who also introduced AHS to many other wealthy Baptists helped him become a leading fund raiser of the church. His eldest son, Charles, married John D.'s eldest daughter, Bessie; two other AHS children almost married Rockefellers; and AHS gave his youngest child, Laura, the middle name of Rockefeller. This last tribute to John D. was done in 1884, when AHS still retained hope that Rockefeller would finance a great new Baptist university in New York City, of which AHS strongly wished to become its first President. Although remaining friends for their life times, Rockefeller felt pressured by AHS and instead gave $25MM to found the University of Chicago.

Strong served as President of the Rochester Theological Seminary for forty years, from 1872 to 1912. When he started the institution was so poor, his first task was to raise enough money to pay his own salary. When he left, the seminary had a reputation as the leading school of religious scholarship in protestant America, thanks to the scholars he had attracted there to teach and the monies he had raised to suitably equip the seminary. He was a prodigious author of at least ten notable volumes: the most well-known being his Systematic Theology, still in use today in Protestant Seminaries and which established his reputation as the unofficial "Pope" of the Northern Baptist Churches: Christ in Creation and Ethical Monism, an 1899 epistle that still has his pundits in confusion; and Great Poets and Their Theology, an interesting work he wrote in 1897, to cite only a few. Among his Baptist offices, AHS was Pres. Am. Foreign Mission Society, 1892-5; Pres. N. Am. Baptist Convention, 1905-10; and Trustee N.Y. Baptist Union for Ministerial Education, 1903-21. The following universities honored him with honorary degrees: Brown, Yale, Princeton, Bucknell, Alfred and Rochester.

Two books about AHS have been published: his Autobiography, Crerar Douglas Editor, Judson Press 1981; and Augustus H. Strong and the Dilemma of Historical Consciousness, Grant Wacker, 1985. A third volume is being written by a religious scholar. Wacker captures the problems of interpreting AHS best. He remains a riddle. "Some have called him a fundamentalist, some have termed him a closet liberal, and others have suggested that he was simply befuddled..." He was distinctly Augustinian when he told the Baptist World Congress in 1905 in London, - "Christianity is summed up in two facts - Christ for us and Christ in us..." Wacker again: "Strong bears an uncanny resemblance to the giant POOKA in Mary Chase's play, Harvey: he appears here and there, now and then, to this one and that one, at his own caprice...! He was not a Jonathon Edwards who towered above his age...and certainly not a William James, who lived far in advance of his age. Rather he was a supremely and touchingly human figure, too tenderhearted to discard the nurture of his youth and too honest to discount the authenticity of his own religious experience."

Dr. Strong's interest in the many fields of science and the new study of Darwinian Evolution may have contributed to the problem of understanding his religious beliefs, as did the ideas he gained from his membership in Rochester's prestigious Pundit Club, a group of intellectuals of national stature.

Jan 5, 1904 in Rochester. He m2 HATTIE MARIA CORRIN LOCKWOOD, widow of Lester

Burchard Lockwood, d/o James Henry Corrin (1822- ?) of Coventry, CT and Maria-Ann Belknap of NYC and Coventry, CT, Jun 14, 1905 in Tacoma, WA.

Henry A. Strong was, as a young man, athletic, adventurous, and a bold fun loving risk taker, who seemed to gain but little benefit from his few years of formal education at the Wyoming Academy, Wyoming, NY. Throughout his life, as he made or lost fortunes, he preserved his sense of humor sufficiently to always be able to poke fun at his own mistakes. His father got him his first job as a clerk in the American Exchange Bank of N.Y. which proved quite distasteful. He went to sea where he endured some hardships on the vessel and in England. He worked for a while in St. Louis in 1859 and then joined a cousin in the shoe business in Denver. He married Helen Griffin that same year and the couple had two children in rapid succession by Oct 1861. HAS joined the U.S. Navy that same year, receiving an Ensign's Commission and appointment as Assistant Paymaster at St. Louis, MO. He was in the battles of Hilton Head, S.C. and Mobile Bay, Alabama, the latter in the company of Admiral Farragut, the Fleet Commander. He left the Navy in 1865 with the rank of Captain to join his uncle, Myron Strong (#7-16927) back in Rochester, NY as a partner in the manufacture of buggy whips. After buying out his uncle's interest, he brought in Mr. Woodbury as a partner in an expanded operation selling general merchandise in addition to whips. (Woodbury, the father of Margaret Woodbury Strong, prospered and along with HAS later invested in Strong & Eastman Co. This was the beginnings of Margaret's fortune which she left to found the Strong Museum in Rochester.)

Henry Strong first met George Eastman in 1880 when the latter was seeking financing for his new invention of the camera, and by 1884 they had formed their partnership of Strong and Eastman Co. to make and sell the Eastman camera and the film it used. The rest is history: the name was changed to Eastman Kodak by Eastman, supposedly reflecting his interest in astrology, in 1889, with Henry Alvah Strong as its first President, an office he occupied until his death in 1919. Both men, and many others who invested in Kodak, became extremely wealthy from the success of the company's products.

His wife, Helen, the mother of all his natural children, died in 1904 and a year and a half later he married Hattie Corrin Lockwood, a widow who possessed the same fire and drive that always motivated Henry. He is presumed to have adopted her thirteen year old son, Lester Corrin Lockwood, who then changed his name to L. Corrin Strong (#7 below). Although HAS had other jobs as noted below, he and Hattie spent the major portion of the remainder of their lives giving away the immense fortune he had accumulated from his Kodak holdings. This included $100,000 to build the Alvah Strong Hall at the Rochester Theological Seminary; money to build the Brick Church Institute which he then gave to the Brick Church of Rochester; the YWCA Administration Building in Rochester; Catherine Strong Hall at the University of Rochester, in honor of his mother; and many other donations to assist good works in the World War I era.

In addition to his largely titular Kodak office, HAS was Pres., Rochester Button Co., and the U.S. Voting Machine Co.; Vice Pres. and Director of the Alliance Bank of Rochester, (now part of Chase Lincoln First Bank); and a Trustee of the Security Trust Co. and the Monroe County Savings Bank.

After Henry Strong's death in 1919, his widow, Hattie Corrin Strong, continued his philanthropy. She was born Oct. 24, 1864 in West Coventry, Conn. and died June 6, 1950 at her home in Winston-Salem, N.C. Her early life had been one of relative hardship causing her to spend her good fortune of later years on projects to help others, such as education, especially for women and underprivileged minorities. As a widow in the early 1900's she and her young son had been shipwrecked on a trip to Alaska where she hoped to find a fortune in the Gold fields. Honare

Wiltse Morrow wrote a novel, Argonaut, about her hardships in Alaska. The list of institutions that benefited from Hattie Strong's charity is too long to reproduce here. We note only a few. Henry A. Strong Auditorium, University of Rochester; President's House, Peiping University; Home Economics Bldg., Hampton Institute; Strong Hall, Suehu, Liberia; rooms at Princess Elizabeth Hostel, London; hospital rooms, American, Paris, France, New York, Washington, & Seattle, (where she first met HAS). She gave a 200 acre French chateau to be a home for face wounded veterans of WW I. In 1927 she established the Hattie M. Strong Foundation in Washington, D.C. to continue charity distributions. Its resources have been administered by her son, L. Corrin, #7, and today, 1987, by her grandson, Henry Strong, #10-134. Other colleges benefiting from either Hattie's or the Foundation's gifts have been Keuka, G. Washington University, Salem College, Rollins, College of the Ozarks, Foreman, Lahore, India. Mrs. Strong received many awards and decorations from foreign governments and honorary degrees from universities, reflecting their appreciation for her beneficence.

SEVENTH GENERATION

7-17700. LT. DAVID STRONG, s/o John C. A. Strong #17382, b. Aug 17, 1825, d. Apr 29, 1914 in Winsted, CT. He m1 Nov 4, 1852, FRANCES AUGUSTA DANIELS, d/o Bartlett Shepard and Florilla (Fuller) Daniels, b. Feb 26, 1799, d. Mar 24, 1856. He m2 Sep 14, 1857, CHLOE MARIA COLT, d/o Henry and Chloe (Catlin) Colt, b. Sep 6, 1834 in Torrington, CT, d. Feb 2, 1865. He m3 Jun 7, 1866, EMERETTE L. COLT (sister of previous wife, Chloe), b. Nov 21, 1841 in Torrington, CT, d. Aug 5, 1924. He is buried in Forest View Cemetery in Winsted, CT, as were all his family members listed hereafter.

He was a 1st Lt. in the 24th Regt. Connecticut Vols. during the Civil War. He was with Banks' Expedition in the Gulf Department and in all the forced marches from New Orleans to Port Hudson. His captain being off duty from sickness, he commanded his company during these marches and the siege of Port Hudson.

After the War, in 1866, David and his brother, Clark Strong established the Strong Manufacturing Company on the Mad River in Winsted, absorbing the firm of Markham and Strong of East Hampton, Ct, engaged in silver-plating of sleigh bells before the War. The Strong Manufacturing Co. expanded, specializing in casket hardware, occasionally filling special orders, as for instance, the solid silver trimmings for the caskets in Grant's Tomb in New York City. In 1874-75, the Strong Manufacturing Co., built a large brick factory, which employed members of the Strong family for the next two generations. David Strong served as director and president; his brother Clark as agent. David Strong served the community in many ways, as president of the First National Bank, as president of the board of Trustees of the Gilbert School, and as an officer of several town offices. He was an active member of the Congregational Church. He continued his family interest in farming, and sent a pair of Devon Oxen to the Columbia Exposition in Chicago in 1893, which won first prize in their class. He also owned many fine horses, some of which participated in harness racing at Great Barrington, MA. (But no betting or drinking!) Eventually, about 1930 the Strong Manufacturing Co. sold out to a national concern. Now, in 1987, the sturdy brick factory which survived the hurricane and flood of 1955 is being restored by a Preservation Trust and will be remodeled into industrial suites for inventors and other small businesses.

Frederic C. Strong attended Sheffield Scientific School, Yale University class of 1890, and then joined the family business, the Strong Manufacturing Co., serving in various capacities, and finally succeeding his father as president from 1915 until the company went out of business in the late twenties. He was a trustee of the Gilbert School, deacon of the First Congregational Church, director of the First National Bank, and active supporter of other local businesses. He was a member of the Rotary Club, warden of the borough of Winsted, and served one term in the state legislature as a Republican.

Before marriage she taught school in Kansas; then travelled and studied for a year in Europe with her cousin, Gertrude Strong, following the example of her father, Philetus, Dartmouth 1849. It was a daring educational experiment for young ladies in 1891-2. A member of the D.A.R. she brought an infusion of new blood to the Strong family, and grafted into the family tree a talent for music, for travel, and for teaching. She was an active member of the Litchfield County Choral Union, founded in 1899, which stimulated the love of music in its highest forms in the Northwest corner of Connecticut by the annual concerts, supported by orchestras from New York City or New Haven, CT, where it has become an outstanding annual musical event, with a membership of nearly 200 voices from five neighboring towns. They lived in Winsted, CT, 1893-1953.

Edwards were the first American pioneers and settlers to establish a mission among the Indians of Oregon Territory. Anna Pitman had been appointed a teacher at the mission, sailed from Boston in July 1836 and arrived at the Columbia River in May 1837, via Cape Horn. Lucy Thompson was educated at the female seminary at Newberry, VT, was a fellow student with Maria T. Ware, wife of Rev. Daniel Lee, of the mission, had been appointed to the Oregon Mission, and sailed, via Cape Horn in the ship, Lausanne.

EIGHTH GENERATION

8-25. REV. DANIEL LEE, s/o Elias Lee #10, b. Jul 1, 1806 in Stanstead, Quebec, Canada the same day his grandfather died and was given his name, d. Jul 22, 1895 in Hennessey, Oklahoma Territory. He m. Jun 11, 1840 in Fort Vancouver, Oregon Territory, MARIA TAYLOR WARE, d/o Capt. Benjamin and Martha (Chapin) Ware, b. Oct 7, 1812 in Gilson, NH, d. Jul 4, 1892 in Caldwell, KS. They are buried in Ware's Grove Cemetery in Montgomery Co., near Butler, IL. In 1834 he was ordained elder by the Baltimore Conference, and the same year appointed assistant to his uncle, Rev. Jason Lee, on the Oregon Mission. Starting from Independence, MO, April 24, 1834, he crossed the continent with Rev. Jason Lee and his party, with pack horses, years before the first wagon train was attempted, arriving at Fort Walla Walla on the Columbia River, on that first day of September following, and on the sixth day of October 1834, the party broke ground for the first Protestant mission west of the Rocky Mountains, near the spot on which now stands the beautiful city of Salem, capital of Oregon. For nearly ten years he labored in the mission. Although establishing a mission and devoting their principal attention to that purpose, they also explored and studied the nature and resources of the country, with a design to future settlement and civilization, and subsequent history proves that their judgment on many subjects to be developed, was well founded. In late 1838 and early 1839, Rev. Jason Lee held several interviews with President Van Buren and other high officials giving them valuable information that was used to keep the Hudson Bay Fur Co. from their intention to take and retain permanent possession of the territory for the benefit of the British crown. In 1838 Rev. Daniel Lee opened a branch mission at the Dalles, on the Columbia River and built the first house where that city now stands. Within a couple of years he had the satisfaction of witnessing a revival among the Indians, extending 50 to 75 miles along the river, in which it was estimated that nearly 1,000 in the country round about, professed a change of faith and practice. In 1840 he was united in marriage with Maria T. Ware, who had been appointed by the M.E. Board as a teacher in the mission. She arrived in Oregon in May of that year, after a perilous voyage in a sailing vessel around Cape Horn, and from that time became identified with the mission as a most efficient helper. She was a graduate of the seminary at Newberry, VT, a woman of sterling qualities and of more than ordinary ability. After ten years of unremitting toil and hardship, Rev Daniel Lee's health had suffered to such an extent that he found it prudent to withdraw from mission work. He resigned from the mission in 1843, spent some time at the Sandwich Islands and after another tedious voyage in a sailing vessel around Cape Horn, arrived with his family at Boston in March 1844. Soon after his return he published a work entitled, Ten Years in Oregon giving much of his own experience and containing many thrilling sketches. From 1844 to 1851 he preached in the New Hampshire Conference. He then moved to Wilbraham Mass., thence to Hillsboro Illinois in 1857 where he resided twenty years. About 1877 he moved to Caldwell, Kansas where after a residence of fifteen years his home was broken up by the death of his wife, which occurred July 4, 1892, in the 80th year of her age. In February 1895 Mr. Lee was injured by a fall while stepping from the train at Hennessey, Oklahoma Territory from which he never recovered. He died at the home of his son, Rev. ALbert B. Lee at Hennessey July 22, 1895, aged 89 years.

NINTH GENERATION

9-35. REV. ALBERT BLANDING LEE, s/o Rev. Daniel Lee #25, b. Sep 7, 1842 at the mission in Willamette Valley, Oregon Territory, d. Sep 6, 1933 in Haskell Comm., Tillman Co., Frederick, OK. He m. Jun 8, 1865 in Devalls Bluff, AR, MARY LUCRETIA STOUT, d/o William and Ann (Parker) Stout, b. Jan 6, 1847 in Dover, Pope, AR, d. Dec 1, 1935 in Tillman Co., OK. After a 2,000 mile voyage via Cape Horn, he arrived with his parents in Boston, MA in March 1844. He attended the Wesleyan Academy at Wilbraham, MA. In 1857 the family moved to Hillsboro, Illinois. During the Civil War, Albert at age 18 enlisted in the Union Army in Company "E", 1st Calvary. He moved to the defense of Lexington, MO until water was cut off and ammunition was exhausted. The company surrendered, was paroled and discharged. He enlisted again in 1862 in Co. "F" 126th Illinois Infantry. He served on scouting parties, took part in the capture of Vicksburg; ordered to Helena, Arkansas to help man the guns of the 11th Ohio Battery and took part in the capture of Little Rock; ordered to Duval's Bluff (now spelled DeValls Bluff located 35 miles E. of Little Rock on Highway 70) where he scouted, fought the enemy, malaria, and mosquitoes. He was ordered again to Little Rock, then back again to Duval's Bluff and detailed as clerk in the medical purveyors office. There he met Mary Lucretia Stout, the youngest daughter of Rev. William Stout and Ann (Parker) Stout, a southern Unionist from Pope Co. living just south of the town of Dover. They had come to Duval's Bluff to claim the effects of Peter Stout, William's son, a casualty of the war. They were m. on Jun 8, 1865 and he was mustered out of service on Jun 16, 1865. They moved in with Mary's parents at Dover, Arkansas witnessing a portion of the stormy reconstruction period. Mr. Stout with 8 others organized the Republican Party in that county. Within one year, five of the 9 were ambushed and killed. After a short visit with his people in Illinois, Albert and Mary returned to Arkansas arriving at Dover on Dec 2, 1865. On Monday the 4th day of December 1865, William Stout, Albert's father-in-law, who was at that time County Clerk of Pope Co. was killed as he sat at his desk in his home. The bullet was fired through the window by Major George W. Newton, a confederate. Another bullet struck Albert in the thigh and Mary who sat near, narrowly escaped death. With the death of William Stout, another voice of moderation was stilled, and a reign of terror began in Pope Co, Arkansas that would last for nine years and would be known as the "Militia War." After four years, feeling life was unsafe, Albert took his wife and children back to Illinois. From there they went to Caldwell, Kansas; later to Oklahoma Territory; last moving to Tillman County in Kiowa Territory during the last 30 years of his life.

Besides farming, he was a great writer, leaving his descendants a great collection of poems. Death came on the eve of his 91st birthday, Sep 6, 1933, at the home of his youngest son in the Haskell community, N.E. of Frederick, OK. They are both buried in the Hollister Cemetery in Tillman Co., OK.

He came with his parents when they made the run into the unassigned lands of Indian Territory settling 8 miles west of Hennessey. It was here that William met and married Rosa Belle Turley. In Sep 1893, William raced for a claim riding horseback through the black oak timber. He found a white claim stake that Henry Osborn had just put his name on. Mr. Osborn had no money to file so a deal was made for William to take the south 80 acres and pay the filing fees for both. William dug a well and a cellar. He put a tent over the cellar and that was his family's first home until Christmas when he completed building their log cabin. In 1898 William purchased the north 80 acres and used the running gears from two wagons to move the frame portion of the cabin to the north 80 where he attached it to an already existing structure. In 1917 a large frame house was built for the family. The Lee children were taught at an early age to pray and be reverent during daily Bible reading and prayer. They all attended a country church known as Wesleyan Chapel. Ten of the children attended Miltonvale Wesleyan College in Kansas. They were a happy, singing, fun-loving, working family. Some of the children were school teachers at Wildwood and Barr schools in Barfield County. Several of the boys started out as farmers. SEVENTH GENERATION

7-18427. MILDRED STRONG, d/o Noah Strong #18375, b. Jun 29, 1796, d. Oct 14, 1846. She m. Aug 7, 1814, BENJAMIN SHELEY, s/o John and Margaret Sheley, Sr., b. Jun 3, 1779, d. Nov 17, 1853. They lived in Silver Creek, Greene, OH. If Mildred ever married before she married Benjamin Sheley it is not known and not recorded. Preserved always used the middle initial of "J"; a granddaughter, Jessie, always said the "J" stood for Johnson. Remembering Preserved named his son Joseph Johnson Strong, it's possible his father's name might have been Johnson. It must be noted that there was a Johnson family living in the small community of Jamestown when Preserved was born.

EIGHTH GENERATION

8-1. REV. PRESERVED J. STRONG, s/o Mildred Strong #18427, b. Jul 22, 1812 near Jamestown, Greene Co., OH, d. May 3, 1897 in La Harpe, IL. He m. Mar 9, 1836, DELILAH ROCKHOLD of Petersburg, b. Dec 16, 1816, d. Jan 4, 1886 in La Harpe, IL.

The following is from his obituary. "Father Strong, as he was affectionately known, began preaching at 25 years of age, having been under license and in regular work 60 years, holding to and preaching the doctrines of the Methodist Protestant Church for the full time. He came to Illinois in the early forties and was the first president of the North Illinois Conference. His first visit to La Harpe was in 1844 when there were but a few houses in the town. Father Strong has, in all his service for the Master, had but ten or twelve charges. He was first stationed at Peoria when it was a village of not more than 300 people."

In 1833, a real estate transaction is recorded in Greene County, where he lived. Land on Caesar Creek identified as Military Survey #1166 originally belonging to his grandfather Noah Strong, and in 1825 listed as belonging to "Noah Strong's heirs" was deeded to Preserved by Michael Sheley (m. to Lois Strong), George W. Strong, Benjamin Sheley (m. to Preserved's mother Mildred), Martha (Strong) Carey, Reuben Strong and his wife Barbara, and Susannah (Strong) McDaniel and her husband Levit. The 50 acres bought by Noah Strong in 1813 now belonged, twenty years later, to Preserved, his grandson. He was also a plasterer and bricklayer. A more complete biography of his life is on file with the Strong Family Association of America Historian. They are buried in La Harpe Cemetery.

In 1860 Joseph was living in the home of Barbara Lemen, probably as a boarder. It was this way that he met Barbara's daughter, Virginia. When her mother realized they were attracted to each other she ordered Virginia not to see him. Faced with that ultimatum he climbed a ladder to Virginia's room, and they eloped and were married that very day. On Sep 8, 1861 he enlisted at Camp Butler for three years during the Civil War and served with the 7th Reg. of the Illinois Cavalry. On May 21, 1862 he was discharged for disability having chronic conjunctivitis and granulation. He fought in the battle of Shiloh. At one time he owned (or operated) a hotel just down the street from the Palmer House in Chicago, according to family tradition. In later years he worked for the Northern Pacific Railroad, eventually becoming the Supt. of Dining Cars for this company. On Jan 1900 he was granted a Civil War pension of $12 a month which was continued to his widow until her death. He was buried first in Oakwood Cemetery in Chicago. Thirty years later his son, Joe, moved his body to Lake Charles Memorial Park in St. Louis, MO, where Myra, his wife, and sons, Lewis E. and Joseph A., are also buried.

Lewis was named for Capt. Meriweather Lewis of Lewis and Clark fame. While young he moved with his parents from Missouri to Iowa. He left his Iowa home March 15, 1863 for the Pacific Coast. The plains were crossed with a mule team. On July second he reached Virginia City, Nevada where he secured employment. He left there on August 15 and crossed the Sierra Nevada mountains via Mt. Shasta, thru the Williamette Valley to Tillamook. In 1864 he went from there to the north Yamhill River and embarked in the sawmill business. On selling out in 1867 he moved to Applegate where he bought a farm of 160 acres. Four years later he sold and went to Phoenix, Jackson Co., OR where he became interested in a flour mill. His next move was in 1876 when he settled in Applegate and bought a flower mill. In 1889 he sold out and bought the Brown farm now the George Hall farm near Myrtle Point, OR. He was the first dairyman in Coos Co. He packed his milk up and down the river bank and hauled it in a small boat to the first creamery built on the Coquille River. Charlie attended North Pacific College in Portland, OR where he graduated with a degree in Pharmacy. It was here in Portland where he met Edith Strong who was attending business college. They lived at first in Prosser, WA; then Medford, OR; Powers, OR; and Cottage Grove, OR. In Cottage Grove they started the Cottage Grove Pharmacy which they operated for the next 18 years while also owning drug stores in Drain, Grants Pass, Cave Junction and Medford, OR.

They sold their store in Cottage Grove in 1945 and moved to Toppenish, WA, purchased a drug store and named it Brown's Bi-Rite which they operated for over 20 years. In addition they owned drug stores in Quincy, Moses Lake, Pasco & Kennewick, WA and shoe stores in Quincy, Moses Lake and Kennewick, WA. In Toppenish they also started the Western States Fireworks Co., importing, wholesaling and retailing the fourth of July type fireworks. He later changed the name to Dragon Fireworks.

They sold the above and in 1957 Charlie and Edith bought 300 plus acres of land in Washington State from the government to develop a new town which they named "George". This is the only town in the United States which has the full name of any U.S. President. They also bought an additional 540 acres adjoining the town site. This was new land and was cleared for farming. They had also owned a Gift Shop in Waikiki, Hawaii which they had sold and just as they started to develop the town of George they were sued for over a million dollars, for a grass skirt fire. The grass skirt was supposed to have been bought at their shop. The law suit went thru a trial and a number of appeals lasting 10 years at which time they lost. Because of this they were never able to do all they had planned to do in the development of the town of George, Washington.

Charlie was mayor of George for 14 years, until his death, after which Edith served out his term and was elected for a one 4 year term. She is currently (1988) a council member. They loved to travel and over the years they traveled extensively all over the world.

Jul 24, 1902 in Oelwein, Fayette, IA. Reflections by Dorothy (Hoppes) Reynolds, her great grandaugher: "Priscilla's home was filled with growing plants. Pots, boxes, wash tubs, anything she could find was put to use in her hobby of propagation. She became an expert at cross-pollinating beautiful flowers, making single ones into double. She was well known for this. When she wasn't growing plants, she painted them; lovely little water color flowers and butterflies. She wrote poetry, expressing her love of nature with a brooding loneliness coming through. A great thirst for knowledge led her to study many things ... at seventy she was learning French and German." William and Priscilla are buried in Ostego Cemetery in Oelwein, Fayette, IA.

In 1871 Benjamin Dwight stated in the History of the Strong Family on page #1532 what he believed regarding the ancestry of Jacob Strong from York, PA. He thought, in time, it would be proved he was descended from Elder John Strong through Enoch Strong #18355 (page 1072) from Coventry, CT. Grace Williams in her extensive research on this subject has proved Jacob Strong from York, PA was not descended from the Elder John Strong line. The following is from Grace's research and is inserted here to help clear up any confusion that may have been created on page #1532.

1-1. JAMES STRONG, SR., the emigrant, (also known as Schim Strang), b. Feb 2, 1727, d. Mar 23, 1804 in Windsor Twp., York Co., PA, buried in Canadochly Cemetery, Windsor Twp., York Co., PA according to the Canadochly Lutheran Church records. He m. Nov 2, 1763, St. James Church records, Lancaster, PA, Maria Imheiser (also known as Maria Magdalena), d/o Adam (named spelled Emenheiser, Imenheiser, Immenhauser, etc.).

Tradition credits James Strong with being Scotch-Irish. Supposedly he desired to come from Ireland to America but was without sufficient passage money. Upon arrival in Pennsylvania, he was indentured to a German man in order to provide the ship's captain with passage money. The story continues that he served his indenture, adopted the German language and then married one of the daughters.

Maria M. Imheiser b. in Germany ca. 1745 came with her father on the ship Hampshire. Adam qualified on Sept. 7, 1748 in Philadelphia. March 9, 1749 he had a Warrent for 50 acres of land in Windsor Twp., Berks Co., PA. Adam was in York Co., by Sep. 26, 1756 when he had a daughter baptized at Canadochly Lutheran Church.

Children of James and Maria:

\+ 2. Johan James Strong, b. Feb 11, 1765, d. Mar 5, 1837.
\+ 3. Francis Henry Strong, b. Jan 11, 1768.

5. George Strong, b. ca. 1770.
6. Phillip Strong, b. Dec 1779.
7. Maria Magdalena Strong, b. Aug 11, 1781.
\+ 8. Johan Jacob Strong, b. Dec 15, 1783, d. Aug 26, 1953.
9. a daughter.

2-2. JOHAN JAMES STRONG, JR., s/o James Strong, Sr., b. Feb 11, 1765 per Manor Land, Landcaster Co., PA records. Parents: James Strong and Magdalene. Sponsors: Peter Biebi and Susanna. He died Mar. 5, 1837 at Strongstown, Indiana Co., PA. He m. ca. 1792 MARIA CATHERINE HAUER (HOWARD), b. Apr. 17, 1775, bpt. Apr. 23, 1775 per St. John's Church, Stumpstown (now Fredericksburg) in Lancaster (now Lebanon) Co. PA records. Parents: Anthony and Maria Barbara (Kueffer) Hauer. Sponsors: Jacob Geib and W. Anna. She died in 1852 at Strongstown, Indiana Co., PA. Both are buried in the Union (or Old) Cemetery, Strongstown.

James Strong, wife and 6 children arrived in 1803 in Strongstown where he purchased 400 acres of land on Dec. 19, 1803. They were Lutherans and spoke German fluently and he signed his will in German.

James Hill came in 1814 with his wife Barbara Emenheiser and 6 children. He purchased 400 acres of land with Jacob Sorgus (Sawyer) Apr. 14, 1814 in Strongstown. Barbara Emenheiser was the daughter of John and gr. dau. of Adam the emigrant.

In 1823 the "clay pike" was laid out between Indiana and Ebensburg. Strongstown was plotted at this time and as a result of a race between the two men in building houses, the town was named for James Strong Jr. The village is half way between the county seats. Grace Williams is a proud descendant of both of these grandparents.

Children:
10. Maria Barbara Strong, b. Jun 3, 1793.
11. Michael Strong, b. Oct 4, 1794, d. Sep 8, 1862.
12. Elizabeth Strong, b. Jun 16, 1796, d. 1889.

2-3. FRANCIS HENRY STRONG, s/o James Strong, Sr., b. Jan 11, 1768, bpt. Aug 9, 1768 per Stone Church, Lancaster Co., PA records. Parents: James Strong and Magdalena. Sponsors: Adam Sorg and wife. He m. May 3, 1797 per Zion Lutheran Church, Harrisburg, PA records, JENNY SMITH.

Child:
20. Joseph Strong, b. Mar 2, 1798, bpt. May 9, 1798 in St. John's Evang., Shermanstown, Cumberland Co., PA.

2-4. ADAM STRONG, s/o James Strong, Sr., Sep 13, 1769, bpt. Sep 28, 1769 in Stone Church, Lancaster Co., PA. Parents: James Strong and Magdalena. Sponsors: Ulrich Muller and Paulina. He died Aug 28, 1834. He m. MAGDALENA MOSER, d/o Christian Moser, b. Apr 27, 1763, d. Jul 27, 1848. They are both buried in the Strongs Private Cemetery on the farm in Hellam Twp., York Co., PA.

Children:
21. Christian Strong, b. Mar 27, 1791, d. Jan 2, 1894.
22. Daniel Strong, b. Jan 22, 1797, d. Feb 1, 1879.
23. Elizabeth Strong.
24. Anna (Mary) Strong, b. Apr 9, 1802, d. Aug 9, 1854.
25. William Strong.

2-8. JOHAN JACOB STRONG, s/o James Strong, Sr., b. Dec 15, 1783, d. Aug 26, 1853, bpt. May 16, 1784 in St. Luke's Lutheran Church, Chanceford Twp., York Co. PA. Parents: James and Maria Strong. Sponsors: Philip and Margetha Illge. He m. CATHERINE SCHWAB, b. Jan 5, 1783, d. Jul 5, 1859 in Akron, Fulton Co., IN. Her obituary in the July 16, 1859 Rochester Sentinel says she reared 13 children and leaves to lament her loss, 11 children. Their 13 children as listed by Benjamin Dwight on page #1532 appear to be OK. Dwight seems to have listed Jacob's wife as Catharine Emmahizer in error instead of Catherine Schwab.

The above is a part of the research of Grace Williams, 18631 Howe Rd., Strongsville, OH 44136. Her work will be published as the "Early York County Strongs" in a future presentation by the Strong Family Association of America in their update of the Benjamin Dwight volumes project.

The following persons had submitted their genealogy to be published in the Jedediah Strong update under Enoch Strong's descendants as wrongfully assumed by Benjamin Dwight in 1871. They are however, surely descended from James Strong, Sr. of York, PA through his son Jacob #7 above and will be included in the "Early York County Strongs" update.

769 Jedediah Strong - correction: should state that he went from Northampton to Lebanon and finally to Coventry.
Source: Will dated Jan 7, 1726/7 states he was "of Lebanon" at that time. Land records in Lebanon have been found dating from 1699. Sometime after 1726 he went to Coventry where he died in 1733.
